

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Keiichi Kubota

Education: 1981 graduated from Tokyo University (MD)
1988 PhD from University of Tokyo
1991 PhD from Karolinska Institute

Professional Background:

1981-1982 Resident of Tokyo University Hospital
1982-1985 Resident of Tokyo Metropolitan Police Hospital
1985-1986 Senior resident of Second Department of Surgery, University of Tokyo
1986-1987 Staff of Department of Surgery, National Kohnodai Hospital
1987-1988 Senior resident of Second Department of Surgery, University of Tokyo
1988-1990 Research and clinical fellow of Department of Transplantation Surgery,
Huddinge Hospital, Karolinska Institute
1990-1992 Chief of Department of Surgery, Tokyo Seamen's Insurance Hospital
1992-1994 Assistant of Second Department of Surgery, University of Tokyo
1994-1995 Chief of Department of Surgery, Tokyo Seamen's Insurance Hospital
1995-1996 Assistant of Departments of Hepato-biliary-pancreatic and Transplantation
Surgery, University of Tokyo
1997-2000 Associate Professor of Departments of Hepato-biliary-pancreatic and Transplantation Surgery, University of Tokyo
2000-Date Professor and Chairman, Department of Gastro-enterological Surgery,
Dokkyo Medical University
2011.4 Vice Director of the University Hospital

Member

International Hepato-Pancreato-Biliary Association
World Transplant Society
European Society of Organ Transplantation
International Association of Surgeons, Gastroenterologists, and Oncologists
European Association for Endoscopic Surgery

Main Research

Liver surgery (hepatic resection, living related liver transplantation)
Pancreatic surgery
Biliary surgery